7. Delivered copy of CIG Memorandum 53 (on firing personnel) to Mr. George Moore, Chief Counsel, House Civil Service Committee. He told me that he had received some CIG personnel figures in connection with the Committee's monthly report on personnel ceilings to the Congress. He said the figures had originally been supplied through the War Department, that they had appeared to be erroneous, and that he had secured the correct information from someone high up in CIG through Mr. McCormack of his staff. I have asked [REDACTED] to check on this, as he has no information on it whatsoever. STATINTL
